

Please read the below carefully and choose the option of how to proceed.

You can proceed on an execution only basis if you have a Residential or a Holiday Let mortgage where you are not taking out any additional borrowing. If you are taking out any additional borrowing you will need to use your own adviser.

If you have an Equity Release or Retirement mortgage you will need to use your own adviser.

Using your own adviser Your adviser will explain what advice options are available to you. If advice is limited to this transaction only, they can help you decide if this is right for you. If advice is not limited, you will receive advice related to all other options available to you along with the broader implications of transferring your loan to move into another property (for example, potential implications to your state benefit entitlement or your estate). Your adviser will tell you whether you have to pay for their advice.

Execution only Hodge will act solely on your instructions. You won't receive any advice and/or a personal recommendation from us as to whether the mortgage meets your specific requirements. We won't be obliged to and won't assess the suitability of this mortgage to your individual needs and circumstances. You would be waiving any protections that the Financial Conduct Authority's regulations on mortgage suitability would bring to you. There aren't any advice fees associated with an Execution only sale.

Declaration

I understand, confirm and agree the following:

Use of your Personal Data

- Where applicable, I enclose payment in order for a Chartered Surveyor to value the property that the additional borrower will occupy. I understand that this fee is not refundable even if the property does not meet the eligibility criteria. Payment of this fee does not mean that Hodge is obliged to accept my application
- I understand that the valuation undertaken is a limited inspection for Hodge's purposes only and it is possible that it may not reveal important defects in the property. If I wish to satisfy myself as to the condition of the property then I understand that I should obtain a more detailed or structural survey. Where a person is added to the mortgage contract they will become a joint borrower with me. This means both of us have to comply with the terms of the mortgage agreement
- I have a right to withdraw from this adding a person to the existing mortgage contract at any time before it is complete. However, if I withdraw, I will not receive a refund of any fees I have paid to Hodge, and I may still be required to pay my financial adviser and solicitor, and Hodge's solicitor, for the work they have undertaken on my behalf
- All the details in this application are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true and complete. If Hodge finds any to be untrue, it could affect my eligibility to add a person to the existing mortgage contract
- I understand that if I proceed on an execution-only basis:
 - Hodge will act solely on my instructions
 - Hodge will not provide me with advice and will not assess the suitability of the transaction for me
 - I will not benefit from the same protection I would get if I had taken advice.
