

Please read this document carefully and choose the option that's right for you:

Advice, or advice related only to this transaction, using your own financial adviser

Your financial adviser will explain what advice options are available to you. If advice is limited only to this transaction they'll help you decide if it's right for you.

If advice isn't limited, you'll receive advice related to all other options available to you along with the broader implications of this transaction.

Your financial adviser will tell you if you have to pay for their advice.

If you choose to take advice you should speak with your financial adviser. Please contact us if you need assistance in finding a suitable financial adviser.

After your financial adviser has discussed your requirements, if appropriate, they'll contact us on your behalf.

Execution Only

For execution only transactions, Hodge will act solely on your instructions.

You won't receive any advice and/or a personal recommendation from us as to whether the mortgage change meets your specific requirements.

You will not be able to refer a complaint about suitability of this change to your mortgage to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS).

We won't be obliged to and won't assess the suitability of this mortgage to your individual needs and circumstances.

There aren't any advice fees associated with an execution only transaction.

If you choose to proceed on an execution only basis, complete the details below and return this form to us.

Declaration

By signing this form, I/we can confirm that I/we understand and accept this declaration and wish to proceed on an execution only basis.
